

H.M. WHITE

HVAC and Ductwork Install

H.M. White partnered with a major automotive manufacturer to modernize HVAC systems supporting new production lines — enhancing efficiency, reducing noise, and ensuring a safe, comfortable environment for advanced manufacturing

Industry: Automotive

Location: Marion, IN

Construction: New Building HVAC

Project Size: $5 Million

Refurbishing HVAC systems to support updated automotive manufacturing operations

A major automotive manufacturer revamped an existing facility to incorporate new press lines. HM white supplied and upgraded HVAC units, along with the corresponding ductwork to support the enhanced production environment.

Scope of Work

Installation of new building HVAC system for new product lines.

- ✓ High efficiency units
- ✓ Noise and vibration control
- ✓ Smart controls & automation

Project Accomplishments

Building HVAC installation.

- ✓ Over 19,000 field hours with out incident
- ✓ Adapted to expanded scope while keeping team aligned and on schedule

Partners

Thank you to our valued partners and our in-house fabrication and installation crews!

- ✓ Shambaugh & Sons
- ✓ Michigan Air Products
- ✓ Electrical Company of America

H.M. White excels in delivering successful sheet metal projects across automotive, industrial, commercial, specialty, and energy-saving sectors

313-531-8477